

Eligible source events remain observed through the full target window. The 6h horizon is prespecified; this figure reports availability only.